November Meteors.

GALVESTON, October 25, 1866.

The papers are announcing the expected return of the great Meteoric display of 1833. Its anniversary recurs on the night of November 12-13, but whether in 1866, or 1867, admits of some discussion. The expectation of its return is based upon the fact of its having been seen in 1779 by Humboldt & Bonpland then travelling in Cumana, South America. Then in 18-31-32-and 33 it was seen, in some degree of brilliancy the former two years, and in 1833 in wonderful brilliancy. If we take this date, the period was 34 years, and the greatest display will not recur till 1867. However, those who would not miss a natural phenomenon, so extraordinary and rare in its recurrence, so stupendous in its grandeur, will not grudge half a night of slumber in observation for the two years, both of which may be expected to repay observation.

In 1833 it was observed in nearly all parts of the world; but the most brilliant exhibition was in the western continent. The point in the heavens from which they appeared to radiate was in Constellation Leo, near the star called Gramma, or the third in magnitude in that constellation. The display commenced about midnight on the Eastern Coast of the United States, and continued till day light, even to the Pacific Ocean.

The writer is indebted to the difficulties of solving the Binomial Theorem, in Algebra, for a most complete view of this spectacle. As a cadet at West Point, I was up and at my duties long before dawn, when the flashes of light through my window attracted me. Upon looking out, the grandest spectacle of a life time broke upon me. The whole heavens were filled with falling and flashing stars. The apparent point of radiation was near enough the Zenith, to give the movements the appearance of falling stars. I had just read in Humboldt's travels in Cumana, South America, his account of a similar display; and thus was saved the alarm that was almost universally felt by spectators.

I soon had the whole corps of Cadets and Professors out on the plain, uttering exclamations of awe and wonder.

The profound Professor Courtney, who taught us philosophy and astronomy, was up and gazing, when I reached his quarters. My appeal to him for solution was answered by the reply, "I know nothing more than you or a child, Mr. B., of this wonderful phenomenon.

At Reveille, when the stars had disappeared from the sky, the meteors were still flashing.

One observation I then made is worth remembering. None of the meteors reached the surface of the earth, nor came between the eye and the neighboring mountains. They seemed all to be dissipated in the atmosphere before reaching the ground. Several burst into fragments, but no reports were heard. I saw the great one that attracted so much attention burst nearly over me, to the eastward. I listened for the report, but heard none. Professor Twining computed its elevation at some 40 miles, I believe, which would be near the upper limit of the atmosphere.

I respectfully ask for reports from observers in Texas, both for this year and next, as our earth will pass the same point, and probably encounter the same school of meteors before they all pass the earth's orbit in 1867.

I hope to be able to furnish for publication such account as the display, whatever it be, may warrant, and will give due credit to contributors, for their observations.

C. G. FORSHEY.

TEXAS ALL OVER.—THE SORTER CONFEDERATE SOLDIER.—The Rutland (Texas) Express tells the following:

Our friend, Charlie White, gets off the following on the "Chubs." As some of my readers may not know what is meant by "Chubs," we inform them that the nick-name was given to Ector's brigade. Charles has drawn a picture of their camp and guards, one of whom is quietly seated on a log, with his gun in pieces, cleaning it. While in this condition the officer of the day rode up and accosted him thus:

"Are you on guard here, sir?"

Chub—"Well, I'm sorter on guard, sir."

O. D.—(Somewhat angry) "Well, I'm sorter officer of the day, sir."

Chub.—(Sublimely cool) "Well, mister, if you'll wait a minit 'till I get my gun together, I'll give you a sorter s'lute.

O. D.—(Enraged) "If you'll wait a minit 'till I get a gaurd, I'll put you in a sorter of a guard-house."

Ex-Admiral Semmes' paper in Mobile, the Mobile Times, is a Johnson paper, and a very able and spirited one. The ex-Admiral seems to have passed from the extreme of disloyalty to the extreme of loyalty, there being nothing mean about him.

The ex-Admiral, as a writer, is strong in thought and classical in style. A pamphlet written by him thirty-two or three years ago, when he was a young lieutenant in the United States navy, was handed to us by a physician of Louisville, and we read it with admiration. He is popular in the South, and will no doubt make his mark, broad and deep, as an editor. If only for the sake of his very excellent and charming family, we should wish him success. May his political ship never encounter a Kearsage.—Louisville Journal.

President Johnson has been reported by the Radical press to have said in his speech at St. Louis, referring to the present Congress, "God willing, I will veto their measures, whenever they come to me." The Radical papers pretend to think that his meaning was that he would veto every bill passed by this Congress no matter upon what subject. We presume that his language was reported incorrectly and in a malicious spirit. At any rate he obviously meant no more than that he would veto all the measures of Congress intended to promote the establishment of their accursed system of policy towards the South.—Louisville Journal.

On the 5th ult., in this city, the final steps in the consolidation of the Alabama and Tennessee River Railroad, Georgia and Alabama Railroad, and the Dalton and Jacksonville Railroad Companies, was perfected, and the consolidated Companies placed under the control and direction of the Alabama and Tennessee River Railroad Company, with General Joseph E. Johnston President.—Rome Paper.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Tuesday Evening, Nov. 6, 1866.

The Northern Elections.

The elections for members of Congress and State officers take place in twelve of the States, North of us, to-day. The present representation in Congress from those States is largely Radical or Republican. The opposers of the President in those States have for months been rallying all their forces to maintain their present strength. Every possible partizan effort has been employed, and large sums of money have been expended, to accomplish their ends. In Baltimore, and, indeed, generally, the most corrupt and extraordinary efforts have been made to keep the Conservative voters from the polls, and to-day every subterfuge or scheme which partizan trickery can invent will be employed against them.

In the meantime the Conservative Republicans and Democrats have not been idle. A better and a more closely contested canvass has never been made by the friends of the Constitution and the Union. So well-fought a field deserves success, yet we cannot hope for the success we desire for them. They have right, and the Constitution, and the peace of the Union, to prompt their zeal and energy and courage, yet the untoward history of past events does not justify the expectation always of the success of the right. We therefore advise our readers not to be too hopeful of results. Yet, whatever may transpire, if it bodes ill, should neither shake our confidence in the right nor turn us from the plain path of duty. Let the South, in any event, obey the laws and adhere to the Constitution, and learn to rely more upon the results of an honorable and honest and persevering personal effort to do right, and to work out our own good fortune, and upon the wise and merciful arrangements of an overruling Providence, than upon anything else.

We are not permitted to take any active part in the agitations and excitements of National politics. We are held to the necessity of being mere spectators of the scenes which are now transpiring, yet we cannot be indifferent spectators. Every Southern man, who loves his people and the Union, who desires peace and quiet, and who has a spark of real Southern honor and sympathy, must desire the success of that party and that cause, which is most patriotic, most devoted to the Constitution and a real Union, and which promises the South the speediest deliverance from the burdens and humiliations of its present condition. That party no one can mistake.

If we can judge of the status of the popular feeling from the newspapers, and from the tone of persons, generally, coming from the North the past three weeks, we think the evidence is manifestly in favor of a growing conservatism in the North, and we are not without hope that the elections of to-day will indicate that a sober and steady re-action has begun to set in, in favor of the right, and that the bitterness of Radicalism is working its own cure upon the body politic.

U. S. Senator.

The short term, in the U. S. Senate, of which Hon. John Pool, of Bertie, is the incumbent, terminates on the 4th. of March next. The suggestion has been made that the approaching Legislature should not appoint or elect his successor—that the treatment the State has received in the persons of their Senators and Representatives is such, that she cannot, with proper self-respect, elect another, and that the fixed purpose of the Congress to keep our Senators and Representatives out of that body, for some time to come, renders it unnecessary.

Such a suggestion is premature and cannot have been seriously considered. The doctrine of the National Executive is, and it is the settled conviction of all conservative men in the nation, and of all sound legal minds at the North, that the Southern States are constituent members of the United States of America, that their claim to being in the Union is indisputable, and that they are fully entitled under the Constitution to full representation in Congress. To fail to elect Senators and Representatives would imply a doubt that the State is thus entitled and would ignore the pleas set up in our defense by the Conservatives of the North.—Moreover, to voluntarily fail to elect would be a virtual relinquishment of our right, and would greatly strengthen the positions and the determination of the Radicals to keep the doors of Congress closed to us. We therefore are decidedly in favor of an early selection of a truly conservative, able man as a colleague of Gov. Graham, who will fully reflect the sentiments of the people of the State.

The Howard Amendment.

We have repeatedly reminded our readers that the Legislature will be called upon to respond to the call of the Congress to ratify the Constitutional amendment. Gov. Worth has had in his possession for some time an official copy of the amendment from the State Department, to be laid before the Legislature. He will, doubtless, make known this fact in his annual message, accompanied with such suggestions as he may deem fit, and it will doubtless form one of the accompanying documents of the message. We cannot doubt that Gov. Worth will urge the rejection of the message.

But the decision of the Legislature upon that question will be gravely considered. Its action, though adverse to the wishes of a majority of Congress, will be eminently respectful to that body. We apprehend it will be referred at an early day to an able joint committee of both Houses, that it will be patiently and thoroughly considered, and that such a report will be made upon it as will vindicate before the nation and the world, and through all time, the propriety and necessity of its rejection by the Legislature. Such report should be drawn up by the most careful hands.

"We deem it not at all improbable that the Southern States may assent to, even if they do not themselves propose, the admission of colored men to the right of suffrage upon some terms of qualification,—such, for example, as are now prescribed by the constitution of the State of New York. As we have more than once pointed out, all their interests will lead them in that direction. Whenever that shall happen, we venture to predict that a party will be developed in New England opposed to the re-admission of the Southern States into the Union at all. There is already a very strong conviction within those six compact and ambitious little commonwealths that the Union can be better governed, and will be really more homogeneous and better adapted to their purposes, without the South than with it."

The foregoing remarkable extract is taken from a late number of the New York Times.—Raymond, the Editor of that paper, spoke against the Howard amendment in Congress and then voted for it. He now urges the South to accept it, but at the same time tells them it will probably not avail them anything in the way of restoration, but would probably cause the creation of a party on the basis of their perpetual exclusion. This is comforting in the extreme to those "patriots" in the South, who affect to see, in the ratification of the Howard amendment, a sure and short road to the fold of the Union. There is now no party, avowedly at least, in favor of the perpetual exclusion of the Southern States, but Raymond tells us that, if the amendment and kindred measures are adopted, there will be.

Each successive abasement and humiliation, on the part of the South, has been followed by fresh and more galling requirements. When the last dregs of self-degradation shall be drained, according to the authority quoted, we are to be finally flouted and spurned as a clog to the Union and a useless and unworthy member of the national circle. And in that event our treatment will be no more than we should deserve.

Immediately after the surrender, and upon the assembling of our State Convention, so apparently earnest were the assurances that, upon the fulfilment of the then stipulated conditions, our full reconciliation would be accomplished, that the President of that body, in fancied vision of the paternal gates swinging open on "golden hinges," exclaimed, with feeling, that "we were going home." With the honest credulity that waits on sincerity of purpose we all thought and believed it. We judged others by ourselves. We thought, because our own intentions were good, that others could not be false and treacherous. "Home" is in full view, but the portals are closed, and we are now warned that they will be barred, and double-locked the closer, in proportion as our supplications to be admitted assume the most nasal and whining intonations.

If the "conviction" is gaining ground that the Union can be better governed, &c., "without the South than with it," it is a thousand pities that this conviction did not fasten itself upon the Northern mind and heart in 1861. It would have saved countless treasure and hundreds of thousands of inestimably valuable lives. It would have left the page of history unstained by the bloodiest chronicle that ever was written since time began. It would have put civilization forward a century, instead of its being dragged back in darkness and chains.

But the so-called "conviction" comes too late. They may be denied their just and sacred rights for a time, but the States of the South will yet occupy their proper and equal place in the Union. They may pass through much of affliction, but all will be right in the end. Returning sense of justice and the reign of reason will finally expel prejudice, passion, malevolence and hate. At least that is our hope. And we are not sure but what the re-action will be so thorough and complete, that it may result in a "conviction" that the "six compact and homogeneous little commonwealths" would be better (for all parties) out of the Union than in it!

West Virginia.

The report of Radical gains in this State turns out to be, like all other first telegrams about the recent State elections—false.

The Conservatives have made large gains throughout the State. In the First Senatorial District, they elect all their delegates and senators. They claim to have elected the Supreme Court Judge, a member of Congress in the Third District, and to have swept the Jacobins in Ohio county, where they claimed a gain.

This is pretty well for a State where a majority of the best citizens are disfranchised.

THE NEW YORK Times begs the South to make "some sacrifice of feeling" for the salvation of the country. It says the Union is in great danger, which will only be increased by the delay of reconstruction. The Times means to say that the South should adopt the Constitutional Amendment; but why does it not beg its own party to set that test aside? That can be done without any "sacrifice of feeling," or of the old fashioned principles of the Constitution; while its adoption would go far to ruin the government as well as to "sacrifice the feeling" of the South.

ONE OF THE WITNESSES AGAINST THE SOUTH.—Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, says that the Southern people are unworthy of trust and confidence,—and Horace is an "honorable man."—Hear what he says of himself:

[From Mr. Maynard's speech at Athens, Aug. 21st.]

"I am an abolitionist. I was accused of being one when I first immigrated to this State.—The charge was just; I was full and running over with abolitionism, but I denied it for policy's sake. I am proud to-day that I have been classed among the persecuted, and deem it the highest compliment to be denounced as such."

Bishop Ruttledge's (of Florida) health is in a deplorable condition. The cancer in his mouth has made such fearful inroads upon the tongue and other organs that he is scarcely able to swallow at all, and he is dying of almost absolute starvation.

The Louisville Journal chronicling the rumor that Senator Wilson of Massachusetts has experienced a change of heart says—"of course the change is for the better. There was no room for any other change."

EXTRACT FROM THE Speech of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland,

Delivered at Towsontown, on the 3rd. inst., on the questions connected with the condition of the country.

"No domestic trouble was ever soon or ever happily terminated by other than peaceful means. Conciliation, when the exigency does not sternly demand force, can alone accomplish it. This all history proves. As long as the subjugation of Scotland was attempted by war, every crag and fastness contained what England called a rebel, and in arms. Her policy was changed. Force failing, conciliation was resorted to, and the happy effect was electrical. The struggle at once ended; Scotchmen were placed on the same footing with Englishmen, and from that period to this, peace has reigned on her whole border, and in the councils and on the field. Scotchmen have equally contributed to the civil and military renown of the kingdom. Towards Ireland, the policy of force and exclusion from participation in the Government was pursued, and for ages they have produced their uniform fruits—tumult, violence, insurrections. Ireland, consequently, has been but an expense and a weakness to the kingdom, instead of being, as she might have been made by the opposite policy, a source of its wealth and power. Even now the fleets of England are hovering around the Green Isle, and her armies traversing her fields, to guard against an apprehended outbreak, and wherever Irishmen are to be found they are offering their treasure and their arms, and avowing a determination to recover at all hazards what they assert has been long lost through oppression—their liberty.—These two instances, if there were no others, furnish a lesson that should guide us. Treat the South as England ultimately treated Scotland, and all will be peace and prosperity.—Treat it as Ireland was once treated, and by her sons is said now to be treated, and our fleets must hover around our Southern coast, and our armies fill the Southern fields. A few words more in connection with this subject and I shall leave it.

President Johnson is assailed with a malignant violence never exhibited in our past political contests. Every abusive epithet that the most depraved imagination can suggest is applied to him. He is even charged with treason to the country. His heretofore public life furnishes him no impunity. To such men it is immaterial that in his whole antecedent career he exhibited a pure love of our land and devotion to its institutions. To them it is immaterial that at the outbreak of the insurrection he, almost alone in the Senate, denounced, and in the most indignant eloquence, the contemplated treachery and the parties engaged in it. It is immaterial that during the war he subjected himself to constant peril, and devoted every faculty he possessed to its success. Immaterial that the measures which he has adopted and recommends for the restoration of the Union are, in all substantial respects, the same as those adopted and recommended by Mr. Lincoln, and which at the moment of his death, as far as his power extended, he was carrying out. It is immaterial that although Mr. Lincoln was bitterly censured by the leaders of the present crusade against Mr. Johnson, who vainly endeavored to defeat his renomination, that he was so nominated and elected, and that Mr. Johnson is pursuing the policy of that lamented statesman. For so doing treason to his country and to his party are alleged against him, and his expulsion by impeachment is demanded. The enlightened sentiment of the world is known to be with him. Not a vessel arrives from abroad that does not bring evidence of this, and that the course of his revilers is strongly condemned. Party, for a time, seems to make these men forgetful of their country, its peace, and its honor. Will they be able to make the country forgetful? If they shall, sad and dear will be the cost to us all. In the judgment of the world we will have proved incapable of self government, and at the same time prove that man nowhere is capable—for if we are not who are? Monarchy or despotism [for men must have a government] will take the place of the republican form, and the liberty we have been taught to know and value will for ages, if not forever, be lost to mankind. I told you in the outset that the condition of our country is alarming—is it not so? The impeachment of the President, and his suspension during its pendency, are threatened for advising measures which more than one-half of the people of the United States approve.

The whole land is heaving in agitation. A political earthquake threatens us with destruction. Ten States, it is said, are already destroyed, and are so dealt with by Congress.—They are alleged to be a mere heap of chaotic materials, to be brought into cohesion and with such shapes as Congress may devise. If this be so, so far as these States are concerned, the glorious work of our fathers is destroyed. All the stars and stripes which from the first of our country have "braved the battle and the breeze" are said not now to belong to our national standard. And yet, yet amidst all this gloom, let us not despair. There are still grounds for hope. Let us nerve ourselves to the effort of meeting the danger; kindle our patriotism by the remembrance of that of our fathers; catch the pure spirit of love of country which guided and animated and strengthened them during their perils. Let us invoke Heaven to endow us with their wisdom and firmness, and above all, to cause us to listen to the counsels, imitate the conduct and keep ever before us the memory of Washington, and all may yet be well—quiet soon take the place of agitation, and friendship and brotherly affection of estrangement and enmity. And each State, as our fathers intended, and as it has heretofore done, form a part, and an equal part, of the great constellation, and retain its long-honored place in the symbol of our united power. It cannot be, let us reverently believe, that Providence will permit the folly and wickedness of man to destroy what for the good of mankind it employed the wisdom and virtue of man to establish. In its inscrutable wisdom it may suffer the work to be apparently in peril, its light to be eclipsed, but let us confidently hope, and in that hope find consolation, that it will not allow it to be extinguished. It has been a light to us and the world, and though now partially concealed, its return in all its brilliancy may assuredly be looked for.

"No star is ever lost
We once have seen;
We always may be
What we once have been."

NO MORE NATIONAL BANKS TO BE ESTABLISHED.—The Comptroller of the Currency announced yesterday that bonds have been received for deposit with the Treasurer of the United States to an amount sufficient to secure the entire three hundred millions of national circulation authorized by law, and no more can be received after this date. The limit has been reached, and hereafter it will be useless to forward bonds, or to apply for increase of capital, or for the organization of new banks, or to do anything with the expectation of obtaining circulating notes.—National Intelligencer, 3d.

In Memoriam.

The Philanthropic Society of the University of North Carolina, in common with the country at large, has to mourn, in the death of the Rev. Dr. FRANCIS LISTER HAWKS, of New York city, the decease of one of her most gifted sons.

Combining all the elements of genius with careful and labored application, he became in his vocation second to no Divine in America.—Zealous in the performance of his duties, he was pre-eminent in whatever he undertook and his whole life was conspicuous for disinterested charity.

Resolved, therefore, That the Philanthropic Society is deeply conscious of her incalculable loss, and, while acquiescing in the dispositions of Providence, will long mourn her christian son.

Resolved, That of her numerous and lamented dead, no one contributed more to add lustre to her organization, and of whose eminence she was more justly proud.

Resolved, As the only visible evidence of our sorrow at his decease, that the portrait of Dr. Hawks in our Hall be shrouded with crape for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased as an expression of our sympathy with them in their irreparable loss.

OBITUARY.

Another bright star has set in death to rise in glory. FREDERICK P. LATHAM, Esq., of Craven, so favorably known and beloved, is no more! He died at his residence, in the 68th. year of his age. He was a most useful citizen, filling the office of magistrate, and other public positions, with great fidelity. He enjoyed largely the confidence of his fellow citizens, which was manifested in various ways. His devotion to his State and section was maintained and exhibited in the most substantial forms, and under the most trying circumstances, during the late unfortunate war. His hospitality and public spirit knew no limit but his means.

As a Christian, his life afforded a conspicuous example of zeal and untiring devotion to the Church of Christ. He was a member of the M. E. Church South for nearly 40 years, and held, for a good portion of that period, the offices of class leader and steward, which he filled with efficiency.

In all the relations of life he was a model man.—Few men will be missed more in his neighborhood and County. When death came he was ready, and met the summons with confidence and holy triumph. His family and friends weep in hope of meeting him again. J. W. L.

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

GRATUITOUS SCHOLARSHIP.

THE Faculty of the Hillsboro' Military Academy, desirous of affording, as far as lies in their power, to some of their late companions in arms the advantage of instruction, and of extending the system of scientific and military education in the State of their adoption, offer gratuitously a scholarship in the Academy to one young man from each Congressional District in the State of North Carolina.

Many States, both at the South and in the North, expend large sums in endowments and annuities for the establishment and support of Military schools, and consider themselves amply repaid by the privilege of appointing a certain number of indigent and meritorious young men as State Cadets or beneficiaries. These State Cadets in return for the education thus afforded to them bind themselves to teach for a limited time after graduation, in their State, which is thus compensated by the creation of Native teachers and the diffusion of Scientific and Military knowledge among its citizens. It is to the Graduates of such a school, that a State looks for Engineers and Architects to conduct her great public works, Scientific men to develop her Mineral, Industrial and Agricultural resources, and officers to command her troops.

The authorities of the Hillsboro' Military Academy, impoverished by the war, are of course unable to do more than a small fraction of what a great State might do. The offer which they make is that of the tuition fee of $75 per session, which amounts to a gratuity of $375 to each young man if he takes the full five years' course. It is hoped that this offer will be met by a corresponding spirit of liberality, and that in each Congressional District some generous minded persons will be found who will contribute as much as may be necessary to enable a poor and meritorious youth, to secure the blessings of an education.

Applications for the scholarships must be made before the 1st. of January next, at which time the appointments will be made.

Three conditions will be required of the applicants.

1st. Testimonials of good moral character, fair abilities and faithful service during, at least, a part of the war.

2d. Certificates of inability to defray the entire expenses of their education.

3d. A pledge to teach in some school or college in the State of North Carolina, for one year after graduation.

Papers throughout the State will confer a favor to the Public by giving publicity to this offer.

Applications to be addressed to
Gen'l R. E. COLSTON,
Superintendent Hillsboro' Mil. Academy.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by fair streets. The square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is inclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Musical announcement: Oliver, Ditson & Co., 277 Washington Street, Boston.

Jno. S. Leach, Adm'r of R. C. Maynard, deceased, gives notice to debtors and creditors of the estate.

See announcement by the Superintendent and Faculty of the Hillsboro' Military Academy, offering a gratuitous scholarship to one young man from each Congressional District in the State. This is most commendable and liberal.

T. J. Garner, Esq., Editor of the Weldon State, announces himself as a candidate for the Principal Engrossing Clerkship of the ensuing Legislature.

J. D. Pullen, Collector of taxes, gives "last notice" to Freedmen and others.

OUR CITY cotemporaries are very properly urging upon the Gas Company, as we have several times done, the propriety and necessity of reducing the price of gas. It is higher in Raleigh than in any other city of the Union, and if the present charges are persisted in our citizens will be compelled to use a cheaper light.

ICE formed in this City this morning.

SOME POTATOES.—Col. Geo. Little has our thanks for the present of a goodly lot of remarkably fine sweet potatoes, grown on his farm near this city. As an average we have never seen finer, while some of them are even superior in size to those sent us, some days since, by Mr. Thompson, of Forestville.

THE GINGHAM FACTORY.—Mr. Willard, the President of the Company, has just returned from the North, having made his orders for the machinery of the Factory. The shops of the North are overworked with heavy orders months in advance. The machinery for the Raleigh Factory will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—The Board of Supervisors met at the Asylum on yesterday. All the members, with His Excellency, Gov. Worth, were in attendance. We learn that the review of its operations and the management of its finances were very satisfactory.

We learn that there were no changes in the officers of the Institution, except that R. K. Ferrell, Esq., who has served as Steward from the foundation of the Institution, with great credit to himself and acceptability to the managers, tendered his resignation, which was accepted. Jas. H. Moore, Esq., late of the Daily Index, was elected to fill the vacancy.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th, and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

Among the arrivals at Boston by the China was the Princess Murat, who is on her way home to Florida, in company with the son of the late Commodore Dallas. She is the descendant of Joachim Murat, King of Naples, and belongs in Florida, where she has long resided. At the close of the war, Louis Napoleon sent to know how she fared, and on receiving the required information, settled on her for life the sum of 20,000 francs or about $3,800 in gold, annually. She is also a relative of Gen. Washington, her great grandmother having been Washington's sister.

"Why are so few convicts in the Michigan penitentiary this year?" asked Sam's friend a day or two since. "Why," said Sam, "they send them by the Pontiac Railroad, and their time expires before they get there."

NEW YORK, November 3.—Benjamin F. Butler was prevented by the crowd from making a speech in the City Hall Park.

The Maryland Legislature, at its last session, passed an act closing the bar-rooms and drinking-houses throughout the State on election days. This will have a good effect in the promotion of order to-day.

A young wife, of Michigan, after a honeymoon of only twenty four hours, left her husband, applied for a divorce on the ground that "her man was not as rich as she thought he was," and the court granted it.

The Vermont House of Representatives has ratified the constitutional amendment by a vote of 199 to 11.

For the Sentinel.

NEAR NEWBERN, N. C., Oct. 29th, 1866.

EDITORS OF THE SENTINEL:—I observe in your paper of Oct. 26th, the following sentence, among others, extracted from the last issue of the Standard:

"At this place, persons visited the Hospitals where the soldiers were voting, took the anti-Vance tickets out of their hands and destroyed them, while officers stood over the ballot boxes swearing that any soldiers, no matter how sick or infirm, who voted against Vance, should be at once sent to the front."

Having been Medical Director of the General Hospitals in N. C., at that time, 1864, and responsible for the conduct of all officers in charge of Hospitals, who were accountable to me, I pronounce the above assertion as utterly false and without any foundation in fact; as it was pronounced to be, soon after the election, by almost every soldier who voted the anti-Vance ticket. It affords me a great deal of pleasure to express my confidence, in every respect, in the honor, integrity, fairness and impartiality of the three Surgeons who were then in charge of the three General Hospitals at Raleigh, viz: Surgeons E. Burke Haywood, J. W. Tracy and H. G. Leigh, all of them Christian gentlemen and members of churches.—Should you think proper to publish this letter you are at liberty to do so.

I am, gentlemen,
Very respectfully,
Your ob't. servant,
PETER E. HINES, M. D.
Formerly Surgeon and Medical Director of General Hospitals in N. C., in the C. S. A.

PROPOSED MODIFICATION OF THE AMENDMENT.—The New Orleans Picayune of the 20th says:

"Gov. Wells has received, from New York, a letter enclosing a copy of the constitutional amendments with certain proposed modifications. The writer states that these modifications have received the approval of minds in position to exert great influence, and that copies of the same have been forwarded to the Governors of all the States not represented in Congress for their opinion. We give the proposed changes in italics in the sections where they occur:

SEC. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or Elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, unless since such rebellion he shall have proven his loyalty by his acts; and has not openly or secretly incited the people to rebel against such legislation as has been adopted by a two-thirds vote of Congress. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned, and such debts shall be equalized throughout all the States, according to the capacity and resources of each State. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations or claims shall be held illegal and void.

Gov. Worth some time since received a similar communication. It is a sufficient answer in the premises, without entering upon a criticism of the suggested modifications or of the amendment as it would stand, if so modified, to say that the proposition emanates from no authorized source, and that the old and insuperable objection remains that the South is called upon to ratify measures which they are allowed no agency in preparing.

TOO OLD TO BE TRIFLED WITH.—An old army surgeon, who was very fond of a joke if not perpetrated at his own expense, was one day at a mess after the decanter had performed sundry perambulations of the table, when a brave and accomplished officer, and a great wag, remarked to the doctor who had been somewhat severe in his remarks on the literary deficiencies of some of the officers:

"Doctor, are you accquainted with Captain G?" "Yes, I know him well," replied the doctor, "but what of him?" "Nothing in particular," replied the officer, "I have just received a letter from him, and I'll wager you a dozen of old port that you can't guess in five guesses how he spells cat." "Done," said the doctor, "it's a wager." "Well commence guessing," said the officer. "K-a dou-ble-t." "No." "K-a-t-e?" "No, try again." "C-a-t-e?" No, you have missed it again." "Well, then, returned the doctor, "C-a double-t." No, that's not the way; try it again—it's your last guess." "C-a-g-h-t." "No," said the wag, "that's not the way; you have lost the wager." Well," said the doctor, with much petulance of manner, "how does he spell it?" "Why, he spells it c-a-t," replied the wag, with the utmost gravity amid the roars of the mess, and almost choking with rage, the doctor sprang to his feet exclaiming: Gentlemen, I am too old to be trifled with in this manner!"

TWO NEGROES NOMINATED FOR THE MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.—Two gentlemen of African descent have been nominated by the Republicans for the next General Legislature. Charles J. Mitchell, a self-educated negro, and a printer by trade, was nominated in the wealthiest and most aristocratic ward in the city, against one of the leading white lawyers of Boston. The Ward is the home of Congressman Sam. Hooper. An attempt is being made by some of the Republicans to prove that there was a wrong count in the ballots. The other negro nominee is E. G. Walker, of Charlestown, a man reputed to be equal in talent to any of the Radicals yet nominated for the Legislature. Both will probably be elected.

"Which is the strongest day?"

"Sunday!"

"Why so?"

"Because all the rest are week days!"

Very good, but if Sunday is the strongest how comes it to be the only one that can be broken.

The other day a young lady asked me:—"What is your favorite flower?" As she was a fashionable lady, I supposed, of course, she referred to household matters, and innocently answered, "extra family."

The Baltimore Imbroglio.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5, P. M.

Judge Bartol to-day decided that the Warden would have three days in which to return the writs.

An establishment containing 150 boxes of fire arms and ammunition was seized to-day by the Police. Resistance was offered to arrest and one man was shot.

Gen. Grant, acting in a private capacity, made the following proposition to the old Commissioners, which it is supposed will be accepted: That the Conservatives have one Judge of elections and a Clerk in each precinct, and, according to the registry law, that there be boxes for rejected ballots,—one to be placed at every precinct. Grant was acting as the representative of Gov. Swann in the matter.

All quiet at present. No trouble apprehended.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.

Affidavits to prove the innocence of the Rev. Mr. McMahon, now under sentence of death in Toronto, have been forwarded to Washington.

BUFFALO, Nov. 5.

There was considerable excitement at Fort Erie, last night, in expectation of a Fenian raid. The cause of the panic seems to have been the arrival of the U. S. steamer Michigan, which has come to restore the Fenian arms captured last June, and the Fenian demonstration on Sunday afternoon, where prominent Fenians made speeches.

From Baltimore—The Election Progressing Quietly.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6, M.

After a conference lasting up to 10 o'clock last night, between the Police Commissioners and a Committee representing the Conservative party, with a view to the latter having one Judge and Clerk for each precinct, according to the agreement made at the conference with Gen. Grant, the Conservative Committee abandoned the whole matter and withdrew without making any nominations to the Police board.

Thus the list of judges and clerks stands as at the Mayor's election.

The election is progressing quietly. As far as heard from, there is no disturbance anywhere.

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Hardock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills, gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

VALUABLE PLANTATION FOR SALE!

ON THE SECOND THURSDAY IN DECEMBER, that being the 13th day of the month, I will sell to the highest bidder, upon the premises, that desirable lately owned, and resided upon, by Miss Elizabeth Hinton, dec'd.

COTTON PLANTATION,

The tract is situated on Neuse River, six miles East of Raleigh, on the Tarboro' Road, adjoining the lands of David Hinton. It contains from of land,—from THREE TO FOUR HUNDRED of which are cleared. About 100 acres are fine low grounds, not liable to over-flow. This is considered one of the best Cotton Plantations in the County, and the bottom land will always produce enough Corn to sustain it.

SIX TO EIGHT HUNDRED ACRES

THE IMPROVEMENTS

consist of a handsome Dwelling House, containing seven rooms, located on a commanding site. There are three frame houses also on the premises, with two rooms each, and all necessary out-houses, cabins, barns, gin house, carriage house, &c.

As this land will be sold on the liberal credit of only one-third cash, the balance payable in one, two and three years, a rare opportunity is afforded to parties wishing to purchase a first-class farm.

Personal security will be required, and title will be with-held until the last payment is made.

W. R. MILLER,
Nov. 2—4d Agent of Legatees.

Valuable Town Property for Sale.

WILL be offered at public Sale, on the premises, on Saturday, the 8th. day of December next, that valuable Lot in the City of Raleigh, known as No. 201, formerly the residence of Secretary Hill, lying on the North side of Hillsborough Street and containing one Acre.

It will be divided into two lots of 105 feet front each, on Hillsboro' Street.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS,

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

NOTIONS,

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.
